Amirah Singh

I'm thanful for my family I'm thanful for my family because my family puts a roof over my head and I'm thankful for my teacher because my teacher takes the time to teach and me make understand the lesson more better I'm thankful for my family also because my mom always has food on the table I love my mom because she protects if I'm in harmful dangerous. I'm for my home my home keeps me protected and I always have warm clothes to put over my body when it's cold outside I'm thanlful for privileges because privileges are when you do something your suppose to do and I do so afterschool I can hangout with my friend and go places with my friends. I love to have privileges because I like to hangout with my friends.