Colin carroll

I am thankful for police because they save people from doing drugs also they save People from beating up People and stop Roberies and they stop people from killing People. this is what I am thank ful for.