Delisa Cameron November 10, 2015

Are you thankful for something? Well yes, I am. Here are somethings that I am thankful for.

I am thankful for my family, this is because they are always there exactly when I need them. for example when I'm sick my family takes me to the doctor to insure I am okay and they also help me with my homework and projects. My family is a set of kind and generous people. They care about me and want the best for me. My family consist of my dad, mom, and older sister and I. I love my family very much. I can't imagine life without them.

Also I am thankful for my house because this is where I live and where memories were made. My house provides me with shelter. I really love my house. My house is a good thing to be thankful for, Alot of other people don't have a place to call home or have somewhere to sleep at night.

Additionally I am thankful for my privileges because they allow me to have fun at home, I have to earn my privileges with good behavior and good grades. A privilege is a special right or advantage. I am very glad to have many privileges such as watching TV, playing on my phone and much more.

All of these things are apart of what keeps me happy everyday, and I'm very thankful for them all.