Karina Maksymchuk H.R Jones School
Utica 4th grade

I am thankful that I have parents, food, clothes, shelter, and family im thankful for that because its the important things to me, I really value these things because I have parents and some kids don't, I have food and some people don't, I have clothes and some may be wishing for a new pair of shoes or a new dress, I have shelter but some people just wish they were in a warm house in a cold winter. and I also have a family that I Love and have fun with those are the things Im thankful for.