

I am thankful for my family because they are like a car

My mom is like a engine without her our family would never work

Shane my step dad is like the wheels he takes us places

My dog Cookie is like the hair on the seats always making us mad and angry

I'm like the horn always making noise and being annoying

I am thankful for my family because they are like a car