Dear Senator Sampson,

I am thankful for things in my life, I am thankful for my games, my family, my dog and my friends. All of these things are important to me. The first thing I'm thankful for is my games. When I am bored I play with them so I won't become bored. I play with them because they are fun to play with, because I can create my own character and play different modes on the games. I have for Xbox 360, and I am thankful for my games. The second thing that I am thankful for is family and my dog. My family helps me with my homework. My family shelters me and gives me love. My dog is cheerful and no matter what, he makes me smile. The last thing I'm thankful for is my friends. They cheer me up when I'm down. When I am feeling bored, they know what to do to cheer me up. No matter what the situation we are in, we have each other's back.

In my conclusion, I am thankful for the many things in my life that I have. My family and my dog are special to me, and my friends are friendly to me also.

Yours sincerely,

Anthony Saddler
