

I Am Thankful

By Bailey Grant

I am thankful for this year. I am thankful for this year because I get to spend Thanksgiving with my family in Maryland, because I have gotten better at multiplication, and because my Mammy helps babysit.

I am thankful for this year because I get to spend Thanksgiving in Maryland with my family that lives there. For example, my Aunt Michelle makes turkey and we also have cranberry sauce. Sometimes we have ribs for dinner and mashed potatoes. I am thankful for this year because I get to spend Thanksgiving in Maryland with my family that lives there.

I am thankful for this year because I have a tutor for multiplication, and because of that, I have gotten better at multiplication, because she comes over twice a week, Tuesdays and Thursdays. I am thankful for this year, because I have a tutor for multiplication.

I am thankful for this year because my Mammy comes over when my parents
