I thank God for waking up everyday. I'm thankful for my Parents and my little sister. My mom works very hard to give me nice things like clothes and sneakers and Im thankful for that. My dad brought me a PS4 and PS3 Last Christmas which I am also thankful for.

I'm thankful for being in this world and being lucky to have everything I want and need. MostN I'm thankful for getting Promoted to the sixth grade this year. I'm very thankful for having nice teachers that helps me alot, they help me By teaching me so I can pass my test and Quizzes. I'm also thankful for meeting good friends this year.
