GREATFUL FOR FAMILY

My family is the most important thing to me, because they support and encourage me to do whatever I want to do. Without family, I would not be able to do a lot of the things I do today.

One of the most important people in my family is my mom she is my wall. She supports me and always has my back. My mom works five days a week and is home in time to cook dinner, and say goodnight to me and my brother. Also I'm thankful for my dad who works six days a week from seven a.m. to eight p.m. My dad is the most hard working person I know, he is like a train that never stops. I am so thankful for them and I am very lucky to have them as parents.

Also another person I'm thankful for is my cousin Melissa, she is a ray of sunshine on a rainy day. She is the happiest, and strongest person I know. Melissa was diagnosed with a brain tumor two years ago, it was the size of a walnut. She got surgery and it was removed. A couple of months ago she had gotten another one she had to get more surgery and went threw radiation and now is much better.

Those are the people I'm thankful for and that I am lucky to have in my life. And the people I look up to. And that's why I am thankful for my family.
