

Hi my name is Andria Scaglione. I am thankful for so many reasons. The first reason is I am thankful for my friends. One reason I am thankful for my friends is that they always keep me busy. Another reason is that they always think about me. The last reason is that they always stick up for me.

I am also very thankful for my pets. One reason is that my two dogs Daisy and Juna make me laugh. The second reason is that they cheer me up when I am sad. The last reason is that they protect me.

The last thing I am grateful for is my family. The first reason is that they comfort me when I am sick. The second reason is that they always make me smile. The last reason is that they always care for me. Those are the things I am grateful for.

By Andria Scaglione