

I am thankful because we are a spice rack

My father is chillie powder, who stays strong when we need him

My mother is sugar, because she's sweet and has good taste

My Grandma is the pepper, because she helps and we need her a lot

My brother Joe, is the salt, because he can sometimes be a little much

My other brother James, is the garlic powder, because when you're around him to much, he gets mean and spicy

And me, I am the cinnamon, because I am needed often and it helps to have me help

I'm thankful for my family because, we are a spice rack...
