

I am Thankful for My Mom

By Jeseny Colon 11/18/11

I am thankful for my mom because she gave me life. She also gives me a life now that no one else can give me. My mom is there for me when I need to cry and when I need love. When I am sick my mom is there to care for me and when I'm hungry she is there to feed me. My mom supports me when I have a test. Yesterday my mom was in a car accident and I am thankful that she is still here with me. My mom means the world to me and I will do anything for her. I will always try to make her happy. I love my mom so much.
