

I am thankful for my family because we are like a soccer team.

My mom is a soccer mom because she takes me and my brother to soccer practice but my mom never goes to the soccer games.

My dad is a cool soccer coach for All Faith Soccer League and he coaches for my brother's team because my brother's original coach dropped out so my dad took his place.

My brother, Christian, is a sport in soccer because he loves it and sometimes he's a ball hogger in the games, and he thinks he's the best on the team.

My cats, Biscuit and Skittles are cute and cuddly because they loveable, Skittles is fat because all he does is eat, and Biscuit just likes to go and have an adventure.

My dogs, Brudie and Hershey are loveable and full of adventure, Brudie loves to be pet because he's full of attention, and Hershey loves to be wild and crazy.

My two fish, Swimmy and Fire are just two little calm, and quiet fish.

As for me, I'm the best at soccer cause I have been playing it for six years and I just love soccer.

This is why I'm thankful for my family.
