I'm Thankful For...

There are many people and things I am thankful for in my life. These things and people form who I am today. These people are like my riches. They put value into my life. I'm definitely thankful for my parents, and grandparents. My mom and dad are really comical and great people to me. They pick me up when I'm down, help me out with everything, and push me to be my best. My family always can put a smile on my face no matter what happens.

I am also thankful for "things" too, not just people. I am thankful for some objects like, having an I phone, I pad , and I pod. It may seem silly, but these devices hold good memories in the form of photos, videos, and even games. Another thing I am thankful for is hockey equipment. My parents bought me this great, high quality equipment, so I can play my favorite sport, or as I can say "life goal."(I love hockey and play a lot.) I also have many little things that I am thankful to have in my life.

My last object that I'm very happy to have in life is my grandma new 1-year old puppy, Bear. She is a little Chihuahua that is a blessing to have. She's a little energetic, but very lazy. The day we bought her, I laid down and she jumped into the bed, and fell asleep. I love her.
