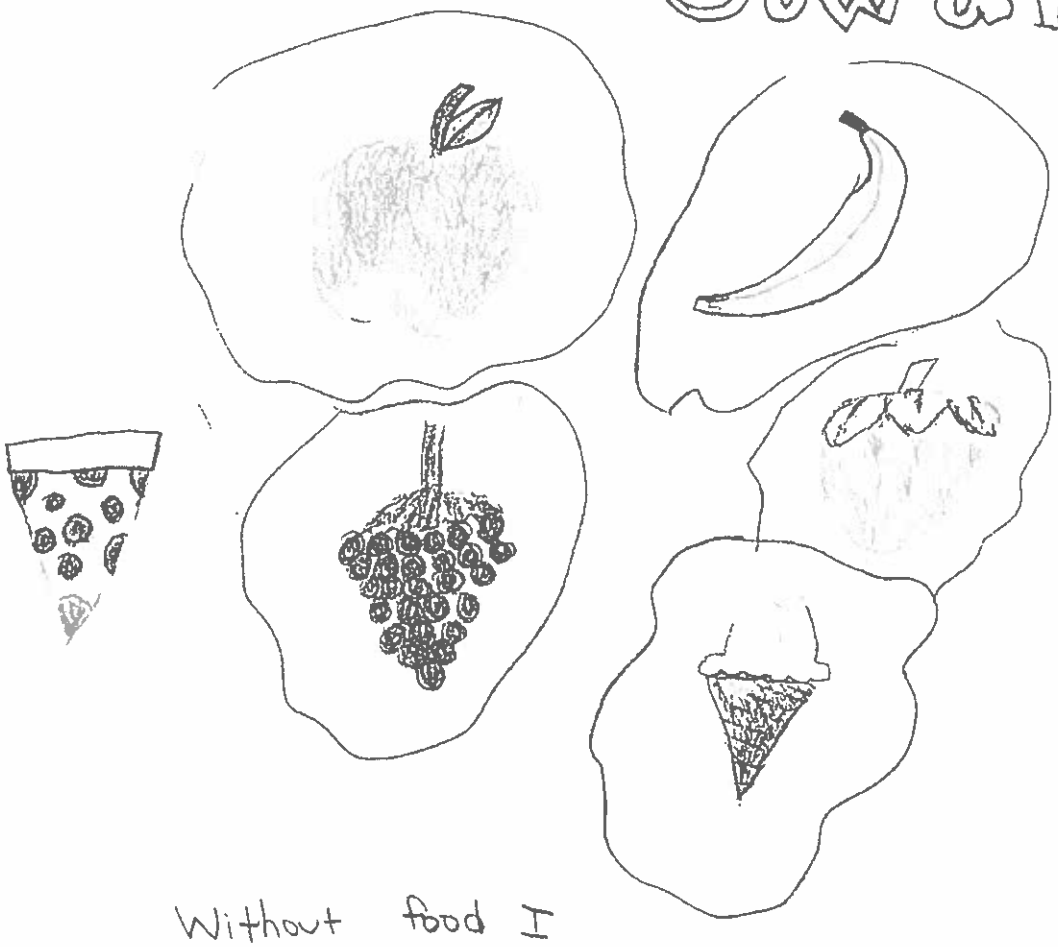
I am thankful for food

Martine McGowan



Without food I would not be here, We are very lucky to have food because many families do not. I am thankful for food because unlike some others I can sit down and eat with my family.