

My Pet, Zora

By Kevin Ryan

I am thankful for my pet, Zora. My family keeps her nice and healthy. I like to play with her a lot and her favorite toy is a mouse. Zora is only two, in cat years. Her favorite thing to do is climb the Christmas tree...so I have to keep an eye on her at all costs!

Zora likes to hang out at a window down in the basement. Zora likes to be petted, especially on the tummy. Zora's fur is always cold, that's why she always likes to be petted. Once, Zora smelled the coffee in my mom's coffee cup and tripped her! Can't you tell she is crazy? That's why I'm thankful for my cat, Zora.
