You should be thankful for something. I'm thankful for everything God has blessed me with such as a loving/ caring family, friends, clothes, shelter, food, school, music and etc.

I am thankful for my family because they give me everything I need and want. I am thankful for shelter because it gives me a place to go to sleep at night, I am thankful for food because it gives me nutrients and I wont starve to death. Some people don't have these things so I really appreciate it.

I am also thankful for friends because they cheer me up when I'm sad and have fun with each other. I am thankful for school too because you need education to get into good schools and get a good job.

I am also thankful for music because music expresses my feelings and it motivates me to dance. I am really thankful for God because he gave me all these things. God loves me and I love him too. Without him, none of this would be possible.

Overall, these are the things I am thankful for. I love all these things. I am really appreciative because I know that not everyone has the things I have.
