Be Thankful For Those Challenges

Be thankful for those challenges you faced in the past
Especially those worst and heart-breaking challenges
Those challenges give you only so many advantages
They shape who you are really fast

With challenges in your life, you'll be determined to never ever ever ever give up
The blood-draining challenges are the ones that make us braver
Those are the challenges that I'm sure you remember
Some challenges are just like a warm-up

Challenges show how much you care for something you want to achieve
You have people around you to support you throughout this
They will give you one warm and welcoming hug and kiss
All you can do through that challenge is believe

Be thankful for those challenges you faced in the past
Especially those worst and heart-breaking challenges
Those challenges give you only so many advantages
