My Poem: Fall is Here

Fall is here, we sing and cheer
Because thanksgiving only comes a year
As families get together, once We say hello to the new weather, and welcome it in
Gathered around a table, we say our thanks Thanks go to all the people, even those who walk on planks
At Thanksgiving, we enjoy the food
And no one is rude
Because fall is here so we sing & cheer
Soon hoping for a new year.
