

I'M THANKFUL FOR . . .

By Rebecca Blumenthal

I'm thankful for many, very many things.

More than just a necklace, a bracelet or a ring.

I'm thankful for our food. Or else we would starve.

And also for the turkeys; which my dad likes to carve.

I'm thankful for my clothes; that I'm lucky to wear.

Also for my school; where I learn how to care.

I'm thankful for my family; every single one.

When we're all together we will surely have some fun!

I'm thankful for my friends; together we laugh and cry.

And how could I forget the earth? My, oh my!

I'm thankful for the sun and moon. They show day and night.

Without these things outside, there would be no light!

So on this Thanksgiving Day, we'll all have a feast.

Everywhere in America! North, South, West, and East!
