What Am I Thankful For

I am thankful for having a roof over my head.
Sleeping at night in my warm cozy bed.
Every morning to have food and be fed.

Thanksgiving is not all bout food.
What's up with you dude?
That's not all there is to be viewed.

It's all about giving thanks.
To what's there, that it's not blank.
So let's give this holiday a higher rank.

The best part is that sweet pumpkin pie.
It feels like you've hit a bull's eye.
Then when it's all gone you just want to cry.
