

Thankfulness

By: Avionna Renee Fitzhugh

I am thankful for my hearing, I am thankful I can see, I am thankful for my kitten who's as busy as a bee. I am thankful for a family who loves me very much, I am thankful for my puppy who's doing such and such. I am I am thankful for the food my mom works hard to serve, and I'm thankful for so many friends whom which I don't deserve. I am thankful for so many things, but I am most thankful for the joy it brings to see so many smiles shining at me, for that indeed is what Thanksgiving means.

Happy Thanksgiving!!!!
