

My Thanksgiving Feast

On Thanksgiving Day all my family comes over to my house. My aunt Peggy, my aunt Rosie, my uncle Danny, and my cousin Mickey will all be there. My aunt, Peggy is the best chef! She makes the best stuffing I ever tasted especially like the turkey, stuffing, ham, sweet potatoes and cranberry sauce.

My sister, Frances and I help set the table with dishes, a table cloth, candles, flowers and cups. My dad carves the turkey and sets it on the table. My aunt Peggy cooks turkey, stuffing, ham, sweet potatoes, carrots, turnips, broccoli and cranberry sauce. The turkey is hot and huge – the size of a medium sized pumpkin! It is always very tasty and juicy too. The stuffing is delicious. It smells so good while it's cooking. It feels mushy. My aunt adds brown sausages to it.

I hate when Thanksgiving is over because everybody goes home and my family and I have to clean a big mess up! The kitchen is also very hot because the stove was on all day cooking all the food.

After all, Thanksgiving is one of my favorite holidays! Happy Thanksgiving Day!
