wussany 11-18-15
EAL will cats

This year, I would like to express my appreciation for my Mom, Teachars, and Family.

One reason I apprecite Mom is because she is always there when I need her. I say this because for example my mom she is always in specia things like my best moments in life. I am also thankful for mom because she taks care of me.

I know this because she always makes me feel like she loves me so much. For these reasons, Mom is one thing I am grateful for.

I am very thankful for teachers is because they are always there to support me when I need them.

I say this because they are always trying to make me try new things. I am also thankful for teachers because they are making me learng new things in life about reading and writing. They teach me how to fix my work. For these reasons, teachers are one thing I am grateful for.

One reason I appreciate family is because they are always there when I need them. They are always there by my say when I need I need them so much.

I am also thankful for Family because ther are always helping me to learn new things. They teach me new things for my best in life. For these reasons, Family is one thing I am grateful for.

The most threet things I am thankful are for my mom, my teachers and my family.

I am thankfull for mom because she love me so much she take cart of alt. I am also appreciate teachers since because they are always there to suppor me and my class meats.

Finally, I am grateful for Family because my Family is always there to give old of ther love.

It was important to writi this essay because so that way we can no how or you thankful alt and how or you not so thankful for.