Thanks Giving is coming and I want to say thanks to my parents.

I want to say thanks because last year they payed a trip for my grandpa and grandma to stay in the United States for the first time! My grandpa and grandma were so happy! Untill one day my grandma fell ill, then she had to go back to her country which was Bosnia and Herzegovina. I was sad but they atleast stayed for six months!. My grandma easily fell ill because she had diabetes.

It was a fun filled six months, but it felt like it has only been two months! Time went by fast, thanks, mom, and dad!
