Why I'm Thankful

Thanksgiving is a time when we are all thankful. Thanksgiving is coming up and surely I will be thankful.

On Thanksgiving I will be thankful for finally visiting my grandpa. I had never seen my grandpa before but only in pictures. He live's in South Carolina so I can't see him everyday. I cant wait to see him. One of the reasons why I cant wait to see him is that he has presents for me. I am very thankful for seeing him.

Another reason why I will be thankful is that I got my first 200 game in bowling. My actual score was 212. The only reason why I got that is because of my coaches. If I didn't have their help I would still be using bumpers. With their help by teaching me new things, I have come from amateur to best in my divison. I am thankful to all my coaches.

These are just a few of the reason's why I am thankful on Thanksgiving.
