Saving Energy

At your house you can save lots of energy. For example open your windows and turn off the lights. This goes electricity. Same as turning off your class smartboard. Also you can reuse the paper you use so that factories that make paper won't need to make as much paper. As a result to saving the energy needed to make paper. Finally, reuse, recycle, and reduce all the materials you use or at least most of them! Save Energy!