Thankful for...

Have you ever thought of what your parents do for you? Well I do ... I bet you want "Aeropostal" and "American Eagle" clothes, and the best phone on the market, like the "Droid Incredible." I'm thankful for everything I have, because some people have nothing.

My parents are very generous for giving me all I want, need and more! But I think that they give a lot to me and I should be giving something back that they might want or need. I bet a lot of people, including adults, still get great stuff from their family. But, do parents ever get awesome stuff from anyone especially their kids?

I think my mom and dad are the nicest people I ever met. I'm thankful for everything I've gotten and from just spending time with them. My parents love me and I love them too. So that's what I am thankful for.
