Thankful for My Mom

Out of everything I'm thankful for in the world I am thankful for my mom. She is the bomb, short and good at math. She takes care of her daughter and gives her a bath. She is my mom because she is the bomb.

We love her with all our hearts. She is my rocking mom, and I know we will have an awesome Thanksgiving because of her. She is the bomb and she will always be my mom. I know some people hate their moms because they don't think they are the bomb, but they are, they are here to take care of us, maybe not to be our friends but to be our moms.

They will always be our "bomb" moms forever and ever and ever and ever and ever... So remember when you need something and your mom does it for you to say thank you mom.

The same thing for Christmas... if you would like to get something for Christmas, like a phone or an iPod Touch or the iPhone 5 tell your mom that you would like it.... If your mom knows that you would like it, there is a chance you could get it for Christmas. Remember to say you are the best rocking mother ever.

Then she might say "AWWWWWW...you're the best son or daughter ever!" I would love to get something next year for my special mom. So moms out there: be the "BOMBS" that we know you are. We are thankful for you!!!
