Thankful for My Mom

I love my mom she is the bomb.

She is the only one who can make me calm.

She loves me dearly when something goes wrong.

For example, when we were all playing a game at my house my mom asked what that yell was.

I just said it was my brother.

Then she said "Oh well what happened?"

I said I closed his finger in the doorway when I slammed it and he yelled.

Well, she wanted to know if his finger was ok.

I said I didn't know so she asked him and he said no way.

So my mom asked him what was wrong.

He just said "LEAVE MEEEE ALONE!!"

That is why I love my mom a lot.

Even though she has no time she is always there for my siblings and I.

She is the bomb!
