

So much depends upon...

So much depends upon the hard work of God.

The luck of us as he spins us on the tip of his finger.

The life like dreams he's had that have come true to what is now.

He looks down on us.

God watches us day and night.

So much depends upon the plans of Jesus.

How he wishes the best for his children of the world.

So much depends upon before we were even here.

The pilgrims have come up with a holiday to thank each other for the hard work of everyone.

Thanksgiving it was called.

To thank each other for your everyday life styles.

I am thankful for my life.

I love being able to do what I love....

LIVE!!!!
