

Haley Singer and Nicole Valis

We are thankful for school so we can learn. It helps us know what we need to know when we are older we go to harder grades. The challenge helps us really think. We could be Einsteins at the age of 30, which will help us live and grow.