“What I Am Thankful For” Essay Contest

Thankful

What am I thankful for, well I'm thankful for my mother and my father because they put a roof over my head, food in my stomach, clothes on my body, and also knowledge in my brain that is why I'm thankful for them.

I'm thankful for is the life I live because I have freedom, friends and family that love me. These are things that are priceless and don't know what I would do without them. I can't imagine not having freedom or friends. I am thankful for the army because it keeps are country safe and they risk are life to safe others that is why I'm thankful for them.

Happy Thanksgiving !
