

This year I am thankful for this year. I am thankful for my friends and family. The reason I am thankful for my friends and family is because when I have bad times they help me through it.

I am going to tell you why I am thankful for my friends, especially for my friend Ali. I am thankful because she sticks up for me. I am also thankful for my friend Bethany. I am thankful for her because she is small like me and she knows how it feels to be small. I am also thankful for my friend Katie, because she is really nice to me. I'm so lucky to have great friends.

Being with my family is important because they care about me a lot. I am thankful for my mom, because she makes me dinner. I am thankful for my dad because my dad cares for me. I am thankful for my grandma because she does my laundry and also makes me dinner. I'm so lucky to have a great family.

I may be done explaining why I am thankful for my friends and family but there are many other reasons. I love my friends and family a lot. They are the best thing that ever happened to me. If I did not have friends and family, I would be nowhere. I have a lot to be thankful for this year.
