I am thankful for my mom and my best friend Bryanna Pecora. I am very thankful for them because they have always been there for me and are very close to me. There are many reasons I chose them for how thankful I am for them.

My mom is a loving person and I am thankful for her. I am thankful for her because she gets me everything I want, for example clothes. Also we do things together, like go on vacation. On Thursday she threw a big party for me for my birthday. For example she invited a lot of people and my friends. My mom cares a lot for me and I am thankful for her.

My absolute best friend is Bryanna and I am thankful for her. I am thankful because we do fun things. Like go to the mall and to the movies. Also we have sleepovers. We watch movies and play games. We are always there for each other. When we are having rough times Bryanna is my best friend and always will be and I am thankful for that relationship.

Those girls are so close to me. They show me who really cares for me and who is there for me. I have such a good relationship with them and I really love that.
