WHAT I AM THANKFUL FOR THIS YEAR

I am thankful for the trees and the leaves and the bees and the breeze. I love my mom and dad, my dog and cat and that is that! I am thankful for God up above and all of the angels watching over me. I am thankful for Jesus dying on the cross to forgive our sins. I am thankful for good friends and family who love me and treat me with kindness. I am thankful for food for my family, a roof over my head and for the world and the galaxy. I am thankful for a comfortable bed to rest my little head, with soft, warm blankets. I am thankful for restaurants and cooks who make food for me when I am hungry. I am thankful for hotels for a place to sleep when we have no power or travel. I am thankful for candles in the dark. I am thankful for all of the workers who build houses, roads and bridges. I am very thankful for the Veterans for giving me freedom and for all of those in the military who keep me safe. I am thankful for God's creation of animals, I love horses! I am thankful for the animal shelters that care for hurt and unwanted animals. I am thankful for all of the Doctors who take care of me to keep me healthy. I am thankful for hospitals that care for the sick. I am thankful for medicine to make me feel better when I am sick. I am thankful for my Teachers who help me learn and have a lot of patience! I am thankful for the farmers and fishermen who feed America. I am thankful for water when I am thirsty. I am thankful for the shoemakers and the clothes designers for making me nice things to wear. I am thankful for the sun for keeping me warm. I am thankful for the moon and the stars for providing light in the dark. I am thankful for the police and fireman for protecting us. I am thankful for cars that get me from one place to another. I am thankful for glasses to help me see. I am thankful for hearing aids to help me hear. This year I have a lot to be thankful for!
