What are you thankful for?

This year I'm thankful for my friend Sofia and my family.

My friend Sofia she's so funny and as a friend, I think I can say, she's also a little funky.

She's pretty nice and we play a game with dice called Farkle. To me she sparkles as a friend.

For my birthday this year she spent so much money. Honey she could of bought me a bunny almost for the same amount of money.

Sofia's the best.

In my family I have a dog and sister who is a hog when it comes to sharing a bed.

I have a mom and I have a dad and I have to admit they're a tad weird.

My mom cooks dinner, does laundry and packs lunches.

My dad helps me with homework, provides fun like boating, snowmobiling and drives me to gymnastic.

My sister pretends she's a dog and we help each other out.

Thanks.
