

Why I'm Thankful

Have you ever stopped and wondered how lucky you are? Some people think they need every thing to be happy, but they don't. Some people don't have a home but they have a family. I think family and love are the two most important things you could ever have.

I think family and love is the most important thing anyone could ask for because with out it I know I would be sad and lonely. I think it is great to be thankful for so many things. I am thankful for such things as my food, money, home, friends, school, and most importantly love and family. When I brought in food for our school's food drive I was so happy because my class brought in 105 caned foods. I knew we were helping out people who needed it! We are all very lucky and should think about giving money to the poor to help people in need. Some people aren't as fortunate as we are and need our help.

By
Janelle
Cleary