

I am thankful for my family and friends

This year I have many things to be thankful for. Like my family and friends. They do so many things for me but the best thing they did for me I am writing about now.

When I woke up it was October 16 2011 and when I came out my door my Mom and Dad started singing happy birthday. I got a new video game NFL training camp game. For breakfast I had Mickey Mouse pancake and sausage. When I had my friends come over at 11:00 the first person to come was Hamza the second one who came was Ethan. They both played my new video game Hamza had a high score of 1600 Ethan had 1550. It was a very hard game in the middle of the game I heard some one calling my name. I looked out the door it was Michael P! At that moment they made me so happy. Then Kevin and Daniel came we played Xbox, football and we ate ribs, hot dogs, pizza.

When they left my mom's side of the family came Brian, Sean, Jessica, Uncle Hardaro and Auntie Cristine. Then my dad's side of the family came Shane, Sydney and Shanna, my other uncle, and my other aunt. Me, Brian, and Shane played football. We watched football all the kids went to get McDonalds' we had cake and then everyone left then I was thankful for my family and friends.
