

Thanksgiving is about thanking people for what they have done for us. It's about being with your family and friends that you can stick with and trust. You're saying 'thank you' to those that help you. Thanksgiving is all about thanking people.

I say thank you for my family
For my parents
For my home
For all the things I own.
I say thank you for my school
For my teachers
And my friends.
I say thank you for my health
For my food
And for everything.

What are you
thankful for?
The turkey, the Potatoes,
The ham?
Your family,
Your friends,
Your pets?
Teachers, veterans, inventors?
The world,
Science, how you
Came to be?
What are you
Thankful For?

Tori Schmitt

I'm thankful for
The family that has been there
Through thick and thin
I'm thankful for
The cozy blankets that comfort me
When I sleep
I'm thankful for
The rain that pitter patters all around my house
I'm thankful for
The roof that protects me from the cold night
I'm thankful for
The clothes that I know most kids don't have
I'm thankful for
The laughter that comes from my cousins
I'm thankful for
Living in a place that I know I'm free

I am
a turkey,
I am
brown,
I am
fat,
I am
round,
I am
tasty,
Eat me
now and don't be hasty

Julia Kearney

What am I thankful for? I am thankful to eat every night. To sleep in my own bed. To have a nice house. To have a married mom and dad. To have a coat that keeps me warm. To have two dogs named Winnie and Apple. To live in a safe country. But most of all... to be me and where I am today.
