

These are the things I am thankful for. I am thankful for my sister. My sister is kind and a great sharer. Our military worked hard to win the war against the king. Food is important for your body because you grow really big. I'm thankful for food. I'm thankful for my room because it keeps me snug. School is the most important. I am thankful for school. I am thankful for our president. Barack Obama is our president now. There are so many things to be thankful for.