

MY OLDER SISTER

I love my sister. She was riding her bike when a car was coming the car was going fast over the speed limit I'm pretty sure. But her friend was there to save her. My sister was so happy that she was alive. Jessica was with her that is the girl that saved her. My sister made Jessica her bff that stands for best friend forever. They called us and told us what happened. My sister Darian was so, so, so happy that she was with Jessica. Darian had a panic attack but Jessica saved her. She could have gotten killed if Jessica was not there so I am so, so, so happy that Jessica is her friend. Never let Jessica go she saved your life. If one of my friends did that I would not let them go if they saved my life. So if somebody saved your life don't let them go.
