

What am I thankful for?

I am thankful I have a videogame at home and I am thankful for having a TV and the best mom in the world. She is the best mom because she gives me videogames and clothes and pants and hats and school supplies and I do work at home. I do class work and homework all the time and I am thankful for my happy face and my mad face.

