

What Would I Do Without You?

By: Destiny Marino

What would I do without you?
If I didn't meet you that one year?
And sat with you on the bus?
I wouldn't have anyone to laugh with
And would need to deal with the snotty girls
For they don't want us to giggle.

My days start out wonderfully
Because I know you'll always
Have my back!
You're my twin, you're my other half!
You tell me the truth, no matter how embarrassing!
While everyone else just stares, and stares.

You're the one, who shares the same interests,
You're the one, who crushes on the same hot guys,
And who never has silly arguments!
You get my jokes,
You're one of a few!

We might be the only ones laughing,
Like we are the only ones in the world.
While everyone is glaring at us,
Like we had a dozen heads,
But it's not us, it's them!
Little do they do know,
That's why we're laughing!

My days end wonderfully
Because I know you'll always
Have my back!
You're my best friend,
And I am yours!

What would I do with out you? <3
