

Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving is a day to be thankful for.

Golden turkey and steaming gravy.

Hot corn burning in my mouth.

My Mom and Dad telling stories of their past.

Afterwards we go outside and play.

Go back and relax and we chill on the couch.

12:00 time for bed we hear the crickets singing a lullaby song.

We catch a dream in our head.

The next day we will eat leftovers and go crazy again.

Oh Thanksgiving I always will be grateful for having the gift of life.

Thanksgiving is a day to be grateful for.
