

What I'm Thankful For At Thanksgiving Time

By: Joey M. Tyner

This Thanksgiving I'm thankful for an AMAZING thanksgiving dinner and the Packers destroy the Lions 😊 while the rest of my family sits and talks about architecture and fancy stuff to go in their kitchen. I'm also thankful for my family's recipe for mashed potatoes with a little hole for the gravy to go in. I'm also slightly sad about my out of state relatives could not come this year. But I will have a fun time at my aunt's house with all my in area relatives.
