Brooklyn, NY- Senator Kevin Parker hosted two successful community events in which over five hundred leaf bags were distributed. The events, which took place over two days on November 8th and 9th, aimed to assist residents in managing their fall cleanup.

Reflecting on the initiative's success, Senator Parker expressed his satisfaction: "I am thrilled to have hosted these free leaf bag giveaways to support our community in maintaining clean and beautiful surroundings. By arming residents with the necessary tools, we are promoting a cleaner environment and fostering a stronger sense of unity among neighbors."

During these giveaways, organized by Senator Parker and his dedicated team, biodegradable leaf bags were distributed to residents, providing them with a convenient and eco-friendly solution for collecting leaves and yard waste. Both events were filled with joy and enthusiasm, reinforcing the Senator's commitment to fostering a closer community.
