SENATOR MARTINS CO-SPONSORS HEARING ON REGULATORY REFORM

JACK M. MARTINS September 26, 2013

| ISSUE: ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT, LOCAL GOVERNMENT

| COMMITTEE: LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Senator Jack M. Martins co-sponsored a Senate hearing on regulatory reform pertaining to the construction industry. The hearing, which took place in the Nassau County Theodore Roosevelt County Executive and Legislative Building was part of a series of hearings on industry-specific, bipartisan forums intended to identify and examine state regulations to see if they may be impeding job creation and economic growth.

The forums are being convened by the Administrative Regulations Review Commission and the Senate Committee on Commerce, Economic Development and Commerce.
