

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR
Jesse Hamilton

Mental Health First Aid Bill In the News: the Brooklyn Reader

EAN FULLERTON January 21, 2016

| ISSUE: EDUCATION, ELEMENTARY & SECONDARY EDUCATION, HEALTH, MENTAL HEALTH, YOUTH

(Brooklyn, NY – January 21, 2015) The Brooklyn Reader reports on the launch of the Mental Health First Aid Bill today, State Sen. Hamilton Introduces 'First Aid' Bill Addressing NYC Youth and Mental Health:

q

New York State Senator Jesse Hamilton and Assemblyman Marcos Crespo introduced a bill that addresses the problem of mental health issues amongst New York City children and the importance of mental health education for the professionals who work with them.

2015-S6234A

- Introduced
- - In Committee Assembly
 - In Committee Senate
- - On Floor Calendar Assembly
 - On Floor Calendar Senate
- - Passed Assembly
 - Passed Senate
- Delivered to Governor
- Signed By Governor
-

Relates to mandatory continuing education for teachers relating to mental health issues
November 24, 2015

In Senate Committee Education

Sponsored by Jesse Hamilton

Do you support this bill?