Statement from Senator Andrea Stewart-Cousins Regarding Threats To Jewish Community Center

ANDREA STEWART-COUSINS February 27, 2017

| ISSUE: HUMAN RIGHTS

“The threats made against the Jewish Community Centers in New Rochelle and Tarrytown are unacceptable and offensive to our values as New Yorkers and Americans,” said Senator Andrea Stewart-Cousins. “My office has contacted the local police in each community to ensure the investigations proceed and that those who have committed these appalling and cruel crimes are held responsible. Bigotry and hatred have no place in New York or America, and we stand in solidarity with the Jewish community and everyone affected by these horrific acts.”
